The News.

The Kansas bill, as amended by the House, was taken up in the Senate yesterday. Mr. Green of Missouri, submitted a motion without explanation to disagree with the House. After considerable discussion the motion was carried by a vote of 32 yeas, to 28 nays.

We have additional foreign news by the steamer Harmonica. The commercial news is favorable. She brings later intelligence from India, but nothing of startling importance. Letters from Rio Janeiro report yellow fever raging there amongst the ships crews.

A destructive fire occurred at Burlington, Vermont, yesterday morning, destroying property to the amount of $180,000.

The village of West Union, Va., was nearly destroyed by fire day before yesterday.

At Washington, it is said, that Gen. Harney will be appointed to the command of the Utah army.

Another terrible steamboat disaster has occurred on the Mississippi river. We have only disjointed particulars.

For various interesting items of news see telegraph column.

The report of the New York produce market indicates a still further improvement in the demand for wheat and flour, and the market generally was more active with an upward tendency in prices. Our own market was also more lively, and prices of wheat advanced a trifle.

The weather yesterday was quite warm and pleasant, more like summer than spring.

The Mass Meeting Last Night.

An immense throng filled Albany Hall, last night, in response to a call for a mass meeting to nominate a Reform City Ticket. Mr. O. H. WALDO called the meeting to order and nominated Dr. JAMES JOHNSON for Chairman. Messrs. W. H. WRIGHT and OTTO RUPPIUS were appointed Secretaries.

Mr. WALDO addressed the meeting at some length, upon the urgent necessity of Reform in our City affairs, and the importance of united effort to secure good officers. He closed by moving the appointment of a Committee of three from each Ward to report suitable candidates for City Officers, at an adjourned meeting to be held this (Saturday) evening. The motion was put and carried, and the Chair appointed the following committee:

First Ward.—A. F. Clarke, Jacob Mahler, E. O'Mahoney.
Second Ward.—Philip Best, L. Ebner, J. A. Hoover.
Third Ward.—J. Cummings, R. G. Owens, David O'Neil.
Fourth Ward.—N. Perelee, J. Plackinton, D. Schultz.
Fifth Ward.—G. G. Dousman, J. Rosebeck, S. H. Martin.
Sixth Ward.—R. N. Messinger, C. Suasek, F. Schloemilch.
Seventh Ward.—Jno. Furlong, W. W. Brown, Rufus King.
Eighth Ward.—John Burnham, Dr. Wunderly O. Shepardson.
Ninth Ward.—Samuel Brown, A. C. Uron, C. Reomelin.

On motion, the meeting then adjourned till half-past 7 o'clock this (Saturday) evening, to act upon the report of the Committee.

The members of the above Committee are requested to meet at the Newhall House, this (Saturday) afternoon, at 3 o'clock punctually.

The Charter Election.

The Mass Meeting last night to nominate a Reform City Ticket, though most numerously attended, was divided in counsel and turbulent in action. This proceeded partly from a diversity of views as to candidates among the friends of Reform, and partly from the efforts of some rowdies, in the pay of the Tax-Eaters, to disturb the meeting. A committee of three from each ward was appointed to report a ticket to an adjourned meeting to-night. It is to be hoped that the Committee will be able to harmonize the various conflicting opinions, and agree upon a ticket that shall be satisfactory to the meeting and receive the hearty and united support of friends of RETRENCHMENT and REFORM.

The Straits Open!

We have a telegraphic despatch from Detroit to the effect that the Straits of Mackinac are free from ice. We may, therefore, hourly expect the arrival of vessels from below, and no doubt a large fleet will leave our port, bound down, to-day and to-morrow. The season of navigation has now fairly commenced.

"Bluing" News.

The News, of yesterday, in its telegraphic despatches, announced that the Kansas bill, as amended in the House, had been returned to the Senate and "finally passed." No such thing.—When the bill came back to the Senate, Mr. GREEN, of Missouri, the leader of the Administration forces, moved to non-concur in the amendments of the House, and so, no doubt, the Senate decided.

P. S. See vote confirming our statement under telegraphic head.

BOGUS "REFORMERS."—The News of yesterday says that "all the City officers and a majority of the Aldermen," last year, "were elected on the Reform ticket;" and thereupon pronounces the said Reformers "great humbugs." Now the "City officers" then chosen were, Mayor CROSS, Comptroller GARDINER, Treasurer SCHWARTING and Attorney FOOTE.—Two of these "great humbugs," Messrs. GARDINER and SCHWARTING, are now "regular democratic" candidates, and vouched for by the News!

The News further states, on "credible information," that the "Editor of the Sentinel" was chiefly responsible for their nomination. Somebody has been fooling the News—no difficult task, to be sure—since "the editor of the Sentinel" had nothing whatever to do with framing, or electing that ticket.

A COINCIDENCE.—The Lecompton Swindle, which passed the Senate by eight majority, was rejected in the House by precisely the same number of votes. The majority of 120 was composed of 92 Republicans, 22 Democrats and 6 South Americans. Every REPUBLICAN member was present and voted against the Villainy.

THE OLD "AGENCY HOUSE" BURNED.—On Wednesday afternoon last, the old Indian Agency House, situated on the bank of the River, about midway between this place and Depere, took fire and burned to the ground. It belonged to the Government, and was at the time occupied by Mr. Henry Chase, as a dwelling. It was built in 1824, as the residence of the agency for the Indians of this territory and the Northwest; and was the first frame house erected in the Territory. The lumber for it was sawed and brought from the St. Clair River; and the lime was burned in Mackinac by Judge John P. Arndt.—Green Bay Advocate.

SOMMERFIELD M. E. CHURCH.—This beautiful edifice is to be dedicated to the service of Almighty God, with appropriate exercises, to-morrow. The church stands on the N. W. corner of Van Buren and Biddle streets. It is built of Milwaukee brick, with lintels, cornices and water-table of gray limestone. The building is 56 feet front by 95 in depth, and divided into two stories. The lower story is occupied by the Lecture Room, 32 by 54 feet, the Minister's study, Class Rooms and Furnace. The upper story is appropriated exclusively to the Church; the wing being 54 feet in width and 79 in depth, with a gallery, 16 feet deep, running across the East end; a ceiling 31 feet, 6 inches in the clear.

The edifice, inside and out, is of good proportions and tasteful form; the interior is especially attractive; the wall being dead white, and the seats, window-frames, doors, &c., grained like oak. The lot cost $5,000, and the church $20,000. A neat brick parsonage joins the Church in the rear.

Much credit is due to the building committee, Messrs. STEVENS, AUSTIN and the Rev. Mr. TILTON, for the energy and success with which they have urged forward the work during the hard times of the past six months. The Mechanics, too, who were engaged on the building, deserve honorable mention for the manner in which they executed the job. The mason was Mr. ROBERTS; the carpenter, Mr. SOUTHWELL; the painter, Mr. ARMSTRONG, and the upholsterer, Mr. AUCHMOODY. The plans of the building were made by Mr. DILLENBURG.

THE HARMONIAL FESTIVAL.—The annual festival of the Harmonialists, at the Albany, on Thursday night, surpassed our most sanguine anticipations. There was a very large number in attendance, and as good a feeling prevailed as we have ever witnessed at a social gathering of this kind. Quite a good many guests from neighboring towns were present, and some sparkling little speeches were made, and a number of voluntary toasts delivered at the supper, which by the by was a capital one, and does great credit to the ladies who got it up and managed it. The opening of the elegant new dining room of the Albany, was quite an interesting feature in the entertainment. The room is a magnificent one, and it won the special admiration of all. Though the weather, one would have thought, was rather warm for dancing, yet the ball was so well ventilated that the dance was carried on without any inconvenience on this account. We have heard many say, that this party far outstrips anything of the kind, we have had this season, and indeed, we are rather inclined to the same opinion. The proceeds are to be devoted to defraying the expenses of lectures, and when sufficient funds can be raised, it is the intention of the society to erect a fine hall here for lectures, debating, &c.

STEALING A PAIR OF STEERS.—A farmer from Burlington, Racine County, named A. Phelps, came into the city and gave notice at the Police station that a pair of steers had been stolen from him, and he expected they would be brought to this city for disposal. Shortly afterwards he found his cattle with a young man in the 5th Ward named Dennis Costigen, who offered them for sale. He claimed his steers and had Costigan arrested on the charge of stealing them. The latter declares that he bought them from an individual whom he supposed to be the owner, and he also says that he knows the man and can find him. Costigan is known to many as a respectable young man, and his version of his story is generally credited. The examination of the case has been postponed for several days in order to give him an opportunity to clear himself if he is innocent of the charge, and also to ferret out the guilty party.

A CARD.—At a regular meeting of Supply Hose Co., No. 1, held at their Hall on Wednesday, March 31, 1858, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Company are due, and are hereby tendered to Mr. Bingham of the Light Guard Saloon, for refreshments kindly furnished us, after the fire on the 18th inst.

Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to cause a copy of the above resolution, to be forwarded to Mr. Bingham, and published in the city papers.

J. R. HAWLEY, Sec'y.
Milwaukee, April 1, 1858.

FIFTH WARD REFORM TICKET.—The Fifth Ward Retrenchment and Reform Meeting, on Thursday evening, nominated the following excellent ticket:

For Alderman.—GEORGE G. DOUSMAN.
For Councillor.—HERMAN KROEGER.
For Justice.—OLIVER PARSONS.
For R.R. Commissioner.—ANDREW MITCHELL.

As Mr. DOUSMAN is on the Democratic, as well as on the Reform ticket, his election as Alderman is a fore-gone conclusion. The electors of the Fifth could not do better.

POLICE COURT YESTERDAY.—John Wagner was fined $1 for being intoxicated. Michael Howigan was sent up for 10 days for being disorderly, in default of $5 fine. Dennis Castigan, charged with stealing a pair of steers, case continued to April 5th for examination, and defendant discharged upon his own recognizance. John Affenbach, was sentenced to 50 days imprisonment in the county jail for committing a brutal assault and battery.

THE WEATHER—DUST.—Were it not for the clouds of dust, that were flying through our streets, we should have been compelled to yield the palm to yesterday, as being the finest day we have had this season. It was an unusual day indeed, for this season, but this season is altogether an unusual one, and we ought not to be surprised at any freaks which the weather may take. One would have been uncomfortable yesterday with heavier garments, than it is usually necessary to wear in June or July, and many there were who seemed disposed to "air themselves," in the genial sunshine. The dust, however, was horrible, and it reminded us forcibly of the days long gone by, when that useful institution, the street sprinkler, had not yet been introduced into the Western country.

LADY ELGIN.—The steamer Lady Elgin is expected here next Tuesday, on her way to Superior, where she is to run this summer. Capt. Tompkins will command her as heretofore.

PAVING DETROIT STREET.—We notice that the work of paving this street, between East Water and Main streets, has commenced.

DUST, DUST, DOWN WITH YOUR DUST—SPRINKLER COMING!—EDWARD HACKETT, an old settler, respectfully informs the public, on East Water Street, from the Walker House to Walker's Point Bridge, and on Michigan, Wisconsin and Huron streets, that he has purchased two sprinkling machines from W. W. Caswell, formerly Neiman's.

He intends to run the "mashsheens" forthwith. He indulges in the hope that the public will be prompt and liberal, and not permit him to lose in the undertaking. His expenses will be heavy; will have to keep two teams, two pumps and four men at work.

Mr. H. acknowledges subscriptions already received, E. HACKETT.

For the Daily Sentinel.

Rents Must Come Down.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I perceive you extract, in yesterday's Sentinel, some items from the Buffalo Express in relation to rents. This is very gratifying to me, and I have no doubt must be to all of our friends in Milwaukee, who are now paying 4 to 500 dollars for a house that in Buffalo would rent only for 150 to 200 dollars, and $1,500 to $2,600 for stores that in Buffalo would rent from $500 to $1,600. The large amount of household furniture, &c., sold during the past season in this city, is to be attributed to the individuals themselves being unable to live here at such an enormous expense, and therefore compelled to look for some other place. There are at present many of our citizens renting houses who intend following suit—and I don't blame them. But I would recommend them not to believe what our Land Agents tell them as to rents not being lower, &c, but hold on till after the 1st of May, when rents will necessarily be as low as in Buffalo. This is my view, and for one I won't rent till the 1st of June, and hope others will do likewise. By this course rents will be brought down to a figure by which we can live, and can afford to pay.

AN HONEST MERCHANT.
MILWAUKEE, March 31.

TO SAIL TO-DAY.—If the wind is favorable, quite a fleet of vessels laden with wheat and flour, will set sail to-day for the lower lakes.—Schooner Berlin, which our cotemporaries stated had cleared yesterday for Oswego, has not left yet, but will start to-day with the rest. She takes 9112 bushels wheat, and 1000 bbls flour.—The other vessels which have taken out their clearances and expect to leave to-day, are: the Schooner Norway, Capt. Tate, Buffalo, taking 6194 bush. wheat, 1030 bbls. flour. The Sch. Milwaukee Belle, Davis, Buffalo, 5860 bush. wheat, 2825 bbls. flour. Schooners Wm. J. Whaling, Capt. Vance, also for Buffalo, taking 15018 bush. wheat, and the Schooner Nonpareil, Capt. Pomeroy, for the same port, taking 12200 bush. wheat. The Driver, Mahoning, and Republic, also loaded with wheat and flour, it is expected will also leave to-day or Monday, wind and weather favorable, and there are besides a number of other vessels preparing to start for the lower lakes next week.

ALBANY HALL PRAYER MEETING.—There was a very full attendance, yesterday noon, at Albany Hall, and much interest manifested in the religious exercises. After several prayers and exhortations had been made, a gentlemen present rose and complained that some of those who had taken part in the exercises of the previous day, had, on the same evening and upon the same floor, participated in the worldly pleasures of the ball room. He accordingly requested the prayers of the congregation for these back-sliders. One or two prayers having been offered up for the "dancing christians," and the hour having about expired, Mr. S. M. BOOTH rose and said he intended to reply to the strictures of Brother ALLEN, but the time being up he would defer his remarks till the meeting today, when he would notice the implied charge.

FOURTH WARD NOMINATIONS.—Pursuant to a call, the Independent electors of the Fourth Ward, met on Friday evening, the 2d inst., at the Menomonee Hotel, for the purpose of nominating suitable candidates, to fill the Ward offices, for the ensuing terms.

☞ We invite our readers to the perusal of Dr. Ayer's advertisements which appear in the columns of our paper. They deserve attention as treating of what interests us all, and from a source which all have long respected. The Doctor is well known as one of the leading Chemists of this country, who devotes his great acquirements to the discovery and manufacture of remedies for popular use. The unparalelled success which has followed his labors is too well known in this community to need any elucidation from our pen.—Washington Co. Observer.

Milwaukee Market.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY SENTINEL,
MILWAUKEE, April 2, 1858.

Received, by M. & M. R. R., April 2—810 bbls flour, 3,135 bus wheat, 615 do oats, 81 do corn, 20 do grass seed, 230 do potatoes, 550 lbs hides, 1,550 lbs pork, and 6 bbls eggs.

By Mil. & Wat. R. R.—1,618 bus wheat, 504 bbls flour, 93 bus oats, 142 bus potatoes, 2 bbls eggs, 21 bus rye, 22 bus beans, 6 head cattle, 250 lbs lard, 400 lbs hides.

By Mil. & Hor. R. R.—1,415 bus wheat, 96 bus beans, 18 bus corn, 800 lbs sundries, 200 lbs hides.

Receipts of wheat by R. R. yesterday, it will be seen, are large. The market was also more active, and we have another advance of from 1 to 2c to note in wheat. The last foreign news has produced a favorable effect upon western markets generally, and caused an advance in prices of staple articles. In our own market, a no less improved feeling is manifest. With greatly increased receipts, there is a lively request for good samples of wheat. There is also more enquiry for oats, and we quote them at a trifling advance to-day upon our last figures.

FLOUR—Quiet and unchanged. Some large shipments have been made, but very few heavy sales have lately taken place. We quote country brands, spring extras in moderate request to supply the retail trade, at $3a3,25 according to quality, and winter wheat flour steady at $3,75a4,25.

WHEAT—The receipts are large, comparatively, and the demand is lively at an advance of 1 to 2c on our last quotations. The request for No. 1 spring is more lively, at 81a85c from common to middling, and extra club at 65 a68c. Winter wheat is looking up, and we quote red at 70a75, and white 82a82c, in fair request.

FREIGHTS—We heard of no transactions in freights, yesterday. There is a little better feeling amongst ship owners. Quite a fleet of vessels, laden with wheat and flour, leave this morning for Buffalo. We have noticed the rates as they have been chartered. For the most part the contracts are 10c on wheat, and 40c on flour.—We were erroneously informed as, to the freight on flour to Oswego by the schooner Berlin. She takes flour at 55c, instead of 60c, as we had it yesterday. The schooner Ludington also takes wheat to Buffalo at 9c, instead of 10c.

RYE—Is in fair request at 49@50 for medium to extra.

BARLEY—Quite dull, at 80a85c, the latter figure only offered for the best bright lots.

OATS—The request is a little better, though receipts continue large. Quoted yesterday at 29a30c.

CORN—Quiet at 30@32½ in the car, and 35@37½ for shelled.

TIMOTHY SEED—In good request at $1.50@1,50 for fair to choice samples.

BEANS—Quiet at 75c.

EGGS—Receipts are large and demand limited, at 8a10.

POTATOES—Dull at 30@35.

DRESSED HOGS—Come in daily in small quantities, which are quickly taken at 3@, to supply retail demand.

HIDES—Steady at 4½@5c for green, and 10a11c for dry.

SHEEP PELTS—In good request, at 12½@75c.

The weather, yesterday, was warm and pleasant, and business generally brisk.

SAILING OF THE FLEET.—Yesterday morning the wind was in the north, and there was but little prospect of the vessels having port for the Straits though some thirteen had cleared at the Custom House and were ready to start at any moment. But about noon the wind veered around into the south east, and immediately tugs were brought into requisition, and soon we built sails the schooners Jupiter and M. Ballard, followed closely by the Lone Star, were seen slowly wending their way down the lake south, as evening set in, they appeared mere specks in the distance. Several other vessels followed, and thus was ushered in the opening of the grain trade with the East for the season of 1858.—Chicago Press of yesterday.

The Straits Open.

DETROIT, April 2.

Two mail carriers from Sault St. Marie 18th ult., have arrived here. They report the straits of Mackinaw free from ice. Sault River was still bridged over with ice, but giving away fast. It is thought boats leaving here on the 12th inst. would experience no difficulty in the Sault River or on Lake Superior, from ice.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, April 2.

HOUSE.—The House went into Committee on the Deficiency Appropriation Bill.

Mr. Jones, of Tennessee, while opposing various items in the bill, particularly for the army, said incidentially, that there was no evidence of a rebellion in Utah. He would send civil officers there, and if the Mormons did not co-operate in the administration of the government, he would repeal the Organic law, and give Brigham Young & Co. fair notice to quit our soil.

Mr. Lovejoy of Ill., said it would be better to give out the Mormon war by contract, and he would not be surprised if this, by the future historian, should be called the war of plunderers and contractors. He would not vote to put money into the pockets of those harpies and jobbers who get fat jobs on account of their political opinions. He also spoke of extravagant contracts having been made by the Government.

Mr. Faulkner of Va., in reply, said there was a proposition to furnish corn at 98 cents per bushel, but it was rejected and directions were issued to purchase at the lowest price. The question of procuring quarter-masters supplies was generally discussed.

Mr. Phelps of Mo., defended the expedition to Utah, which was, he said, despatched with no expectation of making war on the Mormons.—Patriotism demanded that supplies should be voted for the maintainance of the army. He also defended the estimates of the War Department.

The House then adjourned till Monday.

SENATE.—The business transacted during the morning hour, was of an unimportant description.

The Kansas bill from the House was then taken up, and the amendments were read, where upon Mr. Green, of Missouri, said without further explanation, that he would submit his motion to disagree with the House.

Mr. Bigler, of Penn., took the floor.

Messrs. Green, Bigler, Douglas and Pugh spoke, after which the House amendment was disagreed to; 32 against 23.

Mr. Green submitted a motion without comment to disagree to the House amendment to the Kansas bill.

Mr. Bigler considered the amendment as a clear violation of the democratic principle that Congress would not interfere with the right of the people of the Territory to govern themselves under that principle. He had hoped to see the fraternal right of two States, one slave and the other free, coming into the Union together. He was against the amendment because it sets aside what the people of Kansas have already done.

The amendment provides, that if the present Constitution be voted down, the people of Kansas call a Convention to frame a new one, on which the President may admit her by proclamation, she thus becomes a State without coming before Congress at all, what guarantee against abuse is there in this. Who knows if the Constitution, that may be framed will be Republican in form, may not contain inadmissable features. There were many insidious features about this measure of the House, which pleased the public eye, but he trusted that we were near the close of the Kansas turmoil. The agitation of slavery was subsiding like an Upas poisoning the channels of Intercourse, between the great parties of the Union.

He hoped that the slavery feud would have been set at rest by Kansas coming into the Union under the Senate bill.

Mr. Douglas had hoped with the Senator from Pennsylvania, that the question would have settled in accordance with those democratic principals which had been the pride of his (Douglass) life, he said if the amendments were concurred in by the Senate, it would be the triumph of those principals and bring peace and quiet.

The Senators on the other side urge as a reason for the admission of Kansas that it will bring peace. Why not then admit her—we can do it in one hour by assenting to this amendment.

Concur with the House and the action is final and Kansas is in the Union with a right to make a constitution to suit herself. Let men of all parties then unite in stilling the contention.—After replying to Mr. Bigler's opinion of a violation of democratic principles, Mr. Douglas referred to the President's message, alluding to Kansas and Nebraska, and asked if the President had abandoned the democratic party. The object of the reference of the Constitution to the people is simply to ascertain if it is an embodiment of their will.

If it is their act and deed, and it is the duty of Congress to see that it is the embodiment of their will before making it their fundamental law. The Senator from Pennsylvania had cited the case of Florida.—Florida wants no precedent and proves nothing except to engraft upon the action of the government the principle that there is no need of a Constitution to be the will of the people. Such reasoning strikes at the root of all free governments—strikes the props from all parties, American, Democrat and Republican.—The House had amended the bill, which accomplishes two great points, one, that it settles this Kansas excitement, another, that it recognizes the right of the people of Kansas to frame their own Constitution.

Why not then all unite and vote for the amended bill and thus settle the Kansas question. Vote for it and the right of the people is recognized; vote for it and States rights and sovereignty is preserved; vote for it and there is peace in the country.

Mr. Pugh explained the reasons which would influence him to vote against the House amendment. His instructions from Ohio did not cover the present juncture, thence he would exercise the right of private judgment.

He then addressed himself to various legal points, showing the inapplicability of the provisions in the amendment to the circumstances of the case. The amendment submitted the constitution to a more contracted circle of voters than has already voted on the slavery clause.—It is however futile to submit it to a vote, the Free State men having a majority, and can't approve the slavery clause, hence they would vote the constitution down and protract the excitement of framing a new one.

The bill would precipitate the people of Kansas into a new condition of anarchy. He was opposed to it in every shape and form. He considered it the most objectionable proposition yet submitted.

No other Senators offering remarks, Mr. Green's motion was adopted, by yeas 32, nays 23.

Nays—Broderick, Cameron, Chandler, Clark, Collamer, Crittenden, Dixon, Doolittle, Douglas, Fessenden, Foote, Foster, Hale, Hamlin, Harlan, King, Seward, Simmons, Stuart, Trumbull, Wade, Wilson. Absent—B. D. Bates, Davis, Durkee, Henderson, Reid, Sumner, Toombs.

The Senate was crowded, but not much excitement was manifested. After several calls for the yeas and nays to prevent Mr. Douglass from taking up the Minnesota bill, the Senate adjourned till Monday.

SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 3.

Rev. Mr. Staples' Lecture.

Newspaper reporting sometimes leads a man into strange places, b it they do so in New York, and so we must have sermons reported in Milwaukee. It was with some such feeling as this, that we obeyed orders, and went up to Cass St., to attend the lecture of Mr. STAPLES, the pastor of the Unitarian Church, on Wednesday evening, for we had been brought up in propriety and had some indefinite idea that a Unitarian was about as much of a Christian, as a worshipper of Thor and Woden, and was, at least, to be avoided, if not imprisoned.

But we went to the Church, expecting to take some quiet, back seat, and use our tablets, and we were too much taken by surprise, to resist, when our whilom host of another house, took us in escort and politely ushered us into a nicely furnished pew far up among the congregation.—We could not complain; but it quite broke our purpose of taking notes. The Church, which is an exquisite little auditorium, was well filled, but with no appearance of a crowd. On the contrary, everything and everybody bore so much the appearance of at home, and had such a quiet, easy look of social and not public meeting, that we should as soon have thought of taking out our tablets in a private drawing room, or reporting conversation at a tea table, after the manner of PUMP CARPENTER, as to have shown any symptoms of reporting there. So we are left entirely to our memory and impression of things. Of the Church we have spoken. It seemed to us perfect. But we were impressed with the subdued air of quiet and worship that pervaded the place, and was singularly invoked by all the proceedings. The reading of a few sentences from Scripture, the singing and prayer, all breathed, to our thinking, an air of devotion and worship, such as Evangelical Churches might well imitate. The singing, in particular, impressed us. It was pure song and just enough of it,—the right kind in the right place. We have dead headed into many a worse concert, than that was. But we are growing enthusiastic as well as prolix—two things forbidden to a reporter. We can only say that we have simply chronicled our impressions, and we think that anybody, going in as we did, would have had the same. We dislike to attempt any sketch of the lecture itself, which was carefully prepared and read from manuscript by the clergyman. We have to rely on memory, and can give only some of the bare points, the mere frame of the structure, without the moulding, finish and ornament, which gave it form and beauty. Possibly the skeleton may interest some of the readers of the Sentinel, who were not present, though we are sure it cannot gratify any who heard the lecture itself.

The subject, as announced, was "the supply of the spirit's demand."

The lecture commenced with the principle which was held to be fundamental, and an established law in nature, that every want presupposes a supply. This is a well established law, and the foundation of natural science, so that, given the structure and wants of the animal or vegetable, the Naturalist can declare, with certainty, the proper place and home of the animal, or vegetable, and vice versa, given the condition of the globe in any particular age, or of any particular part of the globe, and the Naturalist can give you the animals and plants that must inhabit it, and be indigenous there.

Perfect adaptation is nature's law, which the speaker illustrated by reference to several marked cases in animal life. So, of our own bodies. How, then, is it with our immaterial part? Is not the same law to be found there? We may divide the spiritual man into the mind or, intellect, the conscience, or moral faculties, the heart or affections, and the soul. The great want of the intellect is truth,—truth in science, in reason, in art. The great want of the conscience is right—justice. The great want of the heart is love. The great want of the soul, said the speaker, with thrilling emphasis, is God; and as the wants of the other faculties are supplied, the mind by the true, the conscience by the right, and the heart by love—so is the soul satisfied in God, who is truth, justice and love.

In animal and vegetable life these wants are supplied with no other teaching than instinct or natural law, but in the spiritual wants, there is need of teaching, need of a mediator, to direct to the proper supply; and so, at intervals in the world's history, have come teachers, far in advance of the age in which they lived, to show the human spirit the true supply, to bring out great truths, right and love. NEWTON was an instance of this, and illustrated the speaker's idea that the wants of the spirit were only satisfied by effort, by study and labor, on the part of the inner man.

Newton, without labor and study, would have fallen as far short of the Newton we know, as does the blind worship of vegetables and vermin fall short of the true worship of the living God.

So of the soul. It needed a teacher and has had many teachers, till last has come that perfect teacher sent from God, Jesus Christ. He shows to our souls the true God, the true life, the true and perfect supply of our soul's want.

Something like the above seemed to us the idea of the speaker, but to get the full force and beauty of the lecture as delivered, it should have been heard.

The next lecture will be at the church, on Wednesday evening.

COMPELLED TO ACKNOWLEDGE THE CORN AT LAST.—Our readers will remember with what peculiar tenacity the tax-eating members of the Common Council and the News denounced the Sentinel, for opposing the appointment of men as referees in the Harbor matter, who had committed themselves against the city, and with what audacious assurances Ald. Hadley pursuaded the Council that such was not the case, and that said referees were impartial arbitrators. Now, however, that the position of the Sentinel has been sustained by Judge McARTHUR, and an injunction granted to annul the action of these referees, the Tax-Eaters very sanctimoniously "acknowledge the corn," because all their endeavors to the contrary have been defeated by the vigilance of the tax payers. At the last meeting of the Council, the following preamble, prefixed to a resolution, appointing other referee, which was adopted, was drawn up by one of the Tax-Eaters:

Whereas, This Council is led to believe that one or more of the referees, appointed and chosen under and pursuant to the resolution of 22d day of February last, to arbitrate and determine the matters in difference between the city of Milwaukee and Isaac A. Hasbrouck, had, prior to their selection, expressed opinions upon the subject matter referred, so as to render them incompetent arbitrators; therefore, &c.

Our readers will not be at a loss to know by what means the Tax-Eaters were "led" to this belief.

A TOAST FROM GOV. WISE.—Gov. Wise of Virginia, being invited to attend the St. Patrick's Festival at Washington, sent a letter, regretting that his inability to attend and closing with the following sentiment:

John Philipot Curran, the advocate in 1798 "He was upright, when honor was rebellion, he was true, when integrity was treason; he stood by the accused and the doomed, when to pity was to participate; and he was loyal to liberty, when even to name her was almost to die.

For the Daily Sentinel.

Hadley's Whitewashing Report.

The Common Council, attentive to the popular demonstrations of the people against the taxes, appointed a select committee to examine into the complaints that have been made. As it is not usual to appoint persons charged with crime to be their own judges, it was calculated to excite some surprize that certain members of the Common Council were put upon this committee. This precluded all supposition that judgment of guilt would be pronounced, and curiosity has been anxious for the disclosure of the artifice by which it could be concealed, or disguised. The report of the committee has been presented, and curiosity has been supplanted by disappointment and disgust. The document is neither in confession or denial, and rises not to the dignity of any known plea to any serious charge.

That the city tax this year is larger than for the three previous years, is not denied. That the increase of tax in one year has been 150 per cent, is not denied. That the increase of this year over the last, is seven times the average increase during five years, is not denied,

That the tax of the City of Milwaukee is greater in proportion to her wealth and population than that of any other city in the world, is not denied. And this, too, before anything has been paid on account of any railroad.

The report admits that if the tax payers committee had stated that the Police and Fire Departments were active efficient and exemplary, it would have represented an important truth.—The tax payers committee do so state on page 12 of their report, and add that the latter is remarkable for its public spirit. And they do so, without the insinuation made by the Select Committee, that those departments have mainly caused the increase of the taxes.—The people's Committee charged that the Mayor paid Jonathan Taylor $1,000, on the 28th day July, for "superintending," without specifying, what he superintended; and the Select Committee states "that Alderman Taylor had Argus eyes, to see fraud and corruption in others, and was always clamorous in Council."

If this is intended as an answer to the charge, it is most ungracious. It is an implied admission, that the Mayor paid Jonathan Taylor $1,000 to silence his clamor in the Common Council upon the frauds that his Argus eyes had discovered, and is an imputation upon the Mayor, of more seriousness than the tax-payers Committee had suspected. With this scandalous defence of the Mayor, upon this charge, he is left by the Select Committee, mercilessly without protection, upon all the other charges against him.

The charge, that bills of account, against the city, were allowed in bundles, is passed by the Select Committee in silence. To the charge against the Chairman of the Harbor Committee, that he had an interest in the Harbor contract—the Select Committee report to the contrivance of instituting no inquiry themselves, that they may not be responsible for their declaration, that the charge originates in malice, without any foundation. This is rather an ingenious mode for the Committee to shield themselves, but it is certainly a most cruel manner of disposing of Mr. Hadley, and leaving him to his own ingenuity, to defend himself against many other charges of equally serious import.

The Committee confess that the salaries of officers have been injudiciously increased, and with the experience they have now had, they would fix them at a much lower rate.

That the rent of the Hall and city offices are not enormous, the Select Committee assert that Alderman Prentiss favored a lease of ten years instead of five; and therefore conclude that Mr. Prentiss was of the opinion that the rent was low.

It does not seem to have occurred to the Committee that it is fair to assume that as our city improves and increases in population, rents will be likely to rise. And that a lease for five years might be high, while, if for ten, it would be more reasonable. The longer the term of a lease, in a growing city, the greater the rent may be. In five years from this time these Offices and Hall may command the rent paid, but the rent is far above present rates.

The proposition then of Mr. Prentiss to take a lease for ten years, shows that he considered the rent too high instead of "low," as the Committee concludes, and that the Mayor refused a lease for ten years shows that he was of the same opinion with Mr. Prentiss.

From the character of the Committee, some plausibility of reason, or perverted ingenuity, might have been expected to be exercised in answer to the report of the Peoples' Committee, but even in these there is a palpable failure. The plea upon which they seem to rely is to the jurisdiction of the people to institute any investigation of city affairs. They gravely tell the people that they pay no attention to city affairs, except once a year, when they pay their taxes and though it is not surprising that the present oppressive tax might provoke inquiry, that yet any Committee that the people might appoint is only a self-constituted Committee, that provokes the contempt of city officials, alike for their Committee and themselves.

Upon this assumption, they declare that the people's pamphlet is an abuse of some of the members of the Common Council, without denying that the accusations in it are true. It is boldly insinuated that the city is bankrupt, but that the people have no right to admit it.—It is expressly declared that the taxes are illegal and oppressive, but is insisted that this is no reason for criticising them. Such is official dignity!

The Select Committee indulge in exasperated expressions, that the people and the Committee are alike malicious, full of hatred and all uncharitableness, and in the repetition of it in every changing form, extend their report to great length, without furnishing the least evidence to justify themselves for it. Was ever such an answer given to grave charges, before the criminal box supplied the judges' seat?

The only explanation that can be invented for so disgraceful a report of a Select Committee is, that it was intended as an electioneering document for the Daily News, and for that reason, perhaps, it deserves no further, or severer criticism.

A SPEECH CUT SHORT.—When Gov. Banks message, announcing the removal of Judge Loring, was received in the Massachusetts House of Representatives, Caleb Cushing commenced to make a speech something in this way: "Mr. Speaker: The outrage is consummated! Judge Loring is removed." Whereupon Dodge, of Chatham electrified the house by an unctuously emphatic "Amen," which brought down roars of laughter, and spared Gov. Banks the magnificent lashing Cushing would otherwise have given him. The Barnstable Patriot has the following bit at this scene:

Reply to Ex-Alderman Taylor.

MR. EDITOR:—I perceive in your paper of the 31st ult., a communication dated at San Francisco, purporting to have been written by the ex-Alderman of the Fourth Ward, JONATHAN TAYLOR, which, taken as a whole, is rather a rare and spicy document, but coming from the distinguished source it does, its grammatical accuracy will not astonish any one.

In the first place he commences by bringing in my friend Booth, admitting that he (Taylor) as Alderman, instead of charging him $66,00, the alleged legal tax, let him off for $15,50, for which act he claims to be on the stool of repentance, promising never to be guilty of the like offence again. The learned gentleman then discourses on the indictment found against him, and says there is a screw loose somewhere, and intimates that some "little imp in the shape of man has perjured himself," and then accuses said imp of having reported, some three or four years ago, that my friend Cicero Comstock wanted to bribe him to "swear false." Now as for Cicero Comscock offering any one a bribe, him or other, I do not believe it. In this connection it is scarcely necessary for me to say a word, as the citizens of Milwaukee know Mr. Comstock too well to require any defence of his reputation at my hands.

But why this "epistle" at the present time? Was it got up as an electioneering document, intended to keep in office our present able city officials, thereby throwing a cloak over his past official acts? Or was it done to injure the prospects (as he supposed) of Cicero Comstock's election to the office of Comptroller, knowing full well the character of the said gentleman to be such that it would be a barrier against any future peculations of this fugitive from justice.

The honest Ex-Alderman next proceeds by saying, "Mr. Whitehead did not make the tax list, I made it myself." The idea of poor Jonathan making a tax list will be news to his anxious constituency, most of whom are well acquainted with the fact that the harmless individual could scarcely write his own name, and if there are any doubts on the subject his autograph is now held and can be seen as a public curiosity.

And then again, using his own language, "but Mr. Whitehead copied the tax list, altho' he may not recollect, as he was so full of rum then days that he made so many mistakes; when I came to examine it, I had to get it copied again, which he done, but all was done from pure spite."

Now what does the injured innocence mean when he says it was all done from pure spite.—Does he mean the making of the so-called tax list, the errors committed by me in the first copy, or the second one, for which he received one hundred and fifty dollars, as per the books of our city Comptroller?

Verily, the Alderman's letter is a precious curiosity, evidencing, beyond all doubt, that there is work still to be done by the Sons of Temperance in California. I had been in hopes that a Southern clime "whither he went for the benefit of his health," would have wrought a cure of all desires preying upon him at the time of his departure from our shores, but in that respect we are all doomed to disappointment.

In conclusion, I will only say in reference to the charge of my having ever been paid three or four hundred dollars and getting the late J. B. Edwards to falsify his books, is untrue, and furthermore I am ready to accompany the Investigating Committee, or any one or more gentlemen, at any and all times to examine that matter.

I hope that the sainted Jonathan will be as good as his word, and give his anxious friends here an opportunity to greet his advent the coming May, where, if he should not be reinstated to his former position as Alderman of the Fourth Ward, he will find an abundant field for his expansive mind in writing a work on the fallibility of man, or in making out tax lists.

Respectfully, yours, &c.,

E. WHITEHEAD.

More "Reading Out."

LECOMPTON THE SOLE TEST OF DEMOCRACY.

In the House of Representatives, on the 26th ult, the following spirited dialogue between Lecompton and Anti-Lecompton Democrats, took place:

LECOMPTON—SMITH AND GOV. WISE.

Mr. Smith (of Va.,) in advocating the Lecompton Constitution, expressed his amazement that Governor Wise should have written his Anti-Lecompton Tammany Hall letter.

Mr. English, (Ind.)—Do you hold him to be in or out of the Democratic organization?

Mr. Smith—I do not hesitate to say I hold Gov. Wise to be out, together with all who refuse to co-operate with the great Democratic party.

Mr. English—Did you support Gov. Wise's election to the Gubernatorial Chair—if not, were you not outside of the Democratic party?

Mr. Smith—I did not support him, but I did not make myself active and prominent in thwarting the Democratic party.

Mr. Davis (of Ind.) said Mr. Smith had no right to read him or any other out of the Democratic party. Nine tenths of the Democrats of the free States stood with him against Lecompton. If the gentleman from Virginia attempts to read them out, he will find they will read him out.

Mr. Smith replied that Mr. Davis reminded him of the dissenting juror, who characterized his associates as an obstinate set of fellows.

Mr. Davis—Did you not time and again run as an Independent Democratic candidate, outside of the Democratic party?

Mr. Smith—Never!

Mr. Davis—Such was my understanding.

Mr. Smith—Like a great deal of your understanding it is unsound. Did not the gentleman from Indiana know that the President was the head of the Democratic party, and that he has urged with all his power the admission of Kansas under the Lecompton constitution?

Mr. Davis—Because the President has recommended this measure, does it therefore follow that every Democrat must vote for it? The President may advise, but not command me.

Mr. Smith said the President is the representative of the Democracy and Kansas in all shapes and forms, and intimated that Mr Davis opposed Lecompton at the prompting of the Republicans.

Mr. Davis replied that he intended to carry out the recommendations of the President up to November last, when the President thought proper to change front.

Mr. Smith—Exactly; that is the language of rebellion. (Laughter.)

Mr. Davis—It is the language of a freeman.—[Cries of "good."]

Mr. Smith—A man is known by the company he keeps; and he who is not with us, is against us. He then argued in favor of the Lecompton Constitution. He said that Mr. Douglas got up his movement against that measure to secure his re-election to the Senate, and that there was a concerted movement of the democrats of Illinois for this purpose.

Mr. Marshall, of Illinois, pronounced the charge wholly unfounded.

Mr. Smith replied that the successor of Mr. Richardson told it to him and others without reserve, that some of the Illinois delegation, after consultation, came to the conclusion that this was the only chance to elect Mr. Douglas to the Senate.

Mr. Marshall did not believe that any such conference had been held, and repeated that the statement was entirely unfounded.

Mr. Cox said, it did not become Mr. Smith, who had turned tail on the democratic party, and was elected to Congress by American votes, to make such extraordinary attacks on the democratic members.

BUFFALO HARBOR.—The Buffalo Commercial of Tuesday says:

Early as it is, their appears to be much anxiety up-lake in regard to the opening. Although the ports on lake Michigan as far north as Sheboygan; on Lake Erie from Erie west and the river thence into Lake Huron, are open, yet the Straits the Welland Canal and our harbor remain closed. Vessels, however, are about to start from Chicago for the Straits, and also from Detroit, and we shall shortly hear of their opening. We have not any doubt but what we shall be ready hear for the first arrivals from Lake Michigan. A good easterly wind of 36 or 48 hours continuance, would open this harbor immediately.

BUFFALO HARBOR.—The Chicago Tribune says Capt Newman arrived there yesterday evening from Buffalo, and confirms the information that there is thick ice to within six miles above Dunkirk. It is the general opinion at Buffalo, that vessels will not leave or enter that harbor for two weeks. Very few vessels are yet fitting out; the A. E. Hart was ready to bend sails, the David Todd being the only vessel fitted out.

☞ We cannot refrain from calling the attention of our readers to an advertisement in this day's paper of the Hair Restorative of Prof. O. J. Wood & Co. of St. Louis. It has numerous and unsolicited certificates from persons of the highest character, to the merits of his Restorative. From positive knowledge we are also enabled to say, that he is in every sense what it is professed to be, and we do not hesitate to pronounce the finest preparation for the head and hair which has so far been devised by human ingenuity. We have seen it arrest threatened baldness and restore to the head its original profusion of natural and glossy hair, and when the latter has been prematurely tinged with gray, we have seen it like magic restore the colors of youth and health. The distinguished property of this, we might truly say, Panacean "Restorative," is that it gives to the person who uses it, the same head of hair that they wore in youth, thus acting in strict compliance with the rules of the first and greatest law in nature—Nature, No one who has used it will hesitate to unite with us in this testimony to its peculiar merit.—*Covington (Ia.) Sentence of Albert Staub, the Murderer of Lauermann.

We learn from the Chicago paper of Thursday that Albert Staub, the murderer of Lauermann, was brought up in the Common Pleas Court, for sentence.
The motion in arrest of judgment and for a new trial, was denied without argument, and Staub told to stand up—on being asked if he had anything to say to the Court, he made a brief address in German, which was translated as follows, by one of his counsel, O. Spencer, Esq:—"Any one might know that a person would not commit murder for a trifle; there was a fight between us and blows struck, and I killed him after he had threatened my life."
During this time Staub was a good deal agitated although he made a strong effort to conceal it. Judge Wilson then pronounced the following sentence:
ALBERT STAUB—You have been indicted by the Grand Inquest of this County, for the crime of murder, and a traverse Jury of your own selection have pronounced you GUILTY.
It therefore becomes my painful duty to pronounce the sentence which the law prescribes for the crime of which you stand convicted.
The evidence of your guilt is of the most conclusive character. No possible doubt of your guilt could have been entertained, even excluding the evidence of your repeated confessions, and I am thus relieved from the painful apprehension which would oppress me, if there was a doubt of your guilt.
That a being formed in the image of a Holy and Merciful God, should become so depraved as to commit such a crime is a marvel, which, but for its frequency, would exceed human credulity.
I concur with the jury, in saying that you committed the deed, not under the influence of delirium, not because you were too imbecile to understand the nature of the act, but with deliberation and malice.
Your crime is the highest known to the law, and in its bad pre-eminence stands out broadly distinguished from all others. You have not even the poor apology of being impelled by the master passions, anger, revenge or jealousy; but no farther evidence discloses any motive, the sordid and remorseless passion of avarice alone prompted you. * * * * * *
I regret to say, there is not a doubt to recommend you to the clemency of the Executive.
Dismiss them from your mind all hope that your life may be spared or your sentence mitigated. * * * * * *
You may yet, by sincere repentance, for your many and heinous sins, obtain forgiveness through the merits of Him who suffered the just for the unjust.
Spend, then, I beseech you, the few remaining days of life in preparation for that eternal and changeless state upon which you must so soon enter.
And may He whose name is Love, and who delighteth in mercy, who knows all your sorrows and temptations and trials, and who pities even the most guilty of His erring children, have mercy upon you.
It only remains for me to pronounce upon you the sentence of the law, which is that you, Albert Staub, be taken by the Sheriff of the county of Cook, from the bar of this Court, to the common jail of this county, from whence you come, and that you be from thence taken by said Sheriff, on the 20th day of April next, to some place in said county to be selected by said Sheriff, and that between the hours of nine o'clock in the forenoon and four o'clock in the afternoon of said day, you be by said Sheriff then and there hanged by the neck until you are dead. And may God have mercy on your soul.
During the delivery of the sentence Judge Wilson was much affected and at times almost unable to proceed. Since his conviction Staub has been visited by a number of clergymen, and is said begins to exhibit a contrite spirit.

State Temperance Convention.

Madison, March 31st.

Pursuant to a call, published some time since, the State Temperance Convention assembled at 10 o'clock A. M. to day, in the Methodist church in this city, for the purpose of organizing a State Temperance Society.
Judge J. G. Knapp of Madison, was appointed Chairman, and Mr. B. E. Hale of Beloit, Secretary.
It was voted to organize a State Temperance Society.
Messrs. Bean, Brown, Vinton, Waterman and Patchin, were appointed a committe to nominate permanent officers for the State Society.
Messrs. Hale, Brown and Hawley, were appointed a committee to report resolutions and a constitution for the Society.
The committee reported a constitution, which, after discussion and some amendments, was adopted.
The Secretary being called away, J. M. Haight of Madison, was chosen Secretary pro tem.
The committe on permanent organization reported the following officers, and they were unanimously elected:

OFFICERS:

President—Thurlow W. Brown, Ft. Atkinson, Jeff. Co.
Vice Presidents—One from each county in the State,
Secretary—B. E. Hale, Beloit.
Treasurer—David H. Wright, Madison.
Ex. Com.—Wm. Hawley, Madison; James Sutherland, Janesville; Geo. O. Smith, Oakland, Jeff. Co.; J. E. Vinton, Albany, Green Co.; O. P. Hull, ——, Walworth Co.
Voted that a committee of five be appointed to draft resolution expressive of the sense of this Society.
Messrs. Dean, Fargo, Hazeltine and G. O. Smith, appointed.
The society then took a recess until 2 o'clock P. M.—Madison Journal.

STATE MUSICAL ASSOCIATION.—The first Convention of the State Musical Association, will be held at Whitewater, April 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th and 16th. Prof. Suffren will conduct the rehearsal. The Prof. is a thorough musician, and able conductor, and a man of untiring energy and perseverance. He has held conventions this winter in Whitewater, Columbus, Beaver Dam, Watertown, and many other villages in this State. All these places co operate, and will be represented in the Convention.
The citizens of Whitewater will throw open their doors to all who attend from abroad. We hope to see a good delagation go up from Waukesha. We shall go at any rate, We are acquainted with the hospitality of the citizens of Whitewater, and can assure our readers everything will be done for them that can contribute to their pleasure and comfort, should they attend this Convention. N. B. Dean, of Milwaukee, is the President of the association, and John Woodhull, of Whitewater, is Secretary. We see the musical boys will be employed during the Convention, in the Jubilee, and Glee and Chorus Book by W. B. Bradbury, and Handel's Grand Hallelujah Chorus.—Waukesha Republican.

SENATORIAL COURTESY.—Mr. Green, of Missouri seems to be determined to introduce Border-Ruffian manners into the debates of the United States Senate. On one occasion he openly said to another Senator, "You are a liar." But here is a little passage between him and Mr. Seward:
"The Vice President.—The Senator from Missouri has stated his point of order. The chair will hear the suggestion of the Senator from New York.
"Mr. Green (to Mr. Seward.)—Make your suggestion.
"Mr. Seward.—I wish to know whether I must make my suggestion under the permission of the Chair, or by the command of the Senator from Missouri?
Mr. Green.—Either is equally obligatory.
"The Vice President.—The Senator from New York has the floor."

TWO BUSHELS OF POTATOES AND ONE BUSHEL OF TURNIPS FOR A WIFE.—The current value of a wife—at least of John Nuesberg's wife—came to light on Saturday, in the court of Squire Vogel. Nuesberg sued Frederick Trompe for $10. The latter replied that the other had agreed to pay him $10 for procuring him a good wife. The former responded that the stipulated price for the wife was two bushels of potatoes and one bushel of turnips, and that these had been faithfully delivered. It appearing that Trompe could deny neither the debt nor the potatoes and turnips, judgement was rendered against him.—St. Louis Democrat.

PRINTERS' WAREHOUSE,
Corner of West Water & Spring Streets,
MILWAUKEE WISCONSIN.

Having completed the arrangements for the above business in this city, we would invite the co-operation of the printers of this and surrounding States in its behalf. Our facilities are equal to any Foundry in the country for manufacturing Type and Printers' Materials; and for beauty of finish and hardness of metal, cannot be surpassed in this or any other country. The faces of our Type, are all modern and most approved style, and we are prepared to compete with our Eastern brethren in getting up new styles of Type, Borders, Cuts, Ornaments, &c. We are in daily receipt of all new FACES as they are made at the East, and in advance of any other Establishment in the West.

Being agents for some of the best Type Foundries and Press and Ink Manufactories at the East, we shall keep constantly on hand a full assortment of every variety of material.

Presses, Wood Type, etc., furnished at Manufacturers prices.

Orders for Stereotyping, Engraving, etc., promptly attended to.

We shall issue in the course of the next three months a new Specimen Book which will be furnished on application.

Printers of Newspapers who choose to publish this advertisement including this note, 1 Month, will be allowed their bills at the time of purchasing, three times the amount of our manufactures.
